

SPIRITUALLY MIXED MINISTRY VOLUNTEER HANDOUT

We're called by Jesus to _____ and make _____.

The tension is ...

we ask children and students to maintain friendships with _____ friends as well as reach out to influence their _____ friends.

Without relational _____, the kids in desperate need of the hope only found in Christ will not give God a chance.

Behavior _____ is not our goal.
_____ is.

We have called the people under our _____ to _____ their friends.

This is a _____ issue.

Why should the children and teenagers in our ministry have relationships with unbelievers?

Our spiritual growth is intensified when we know that people are _____.

The lid in your kids' lives that keeps them from growing is not having relationships with people who don't _____ like them.

If everybody's thinking the _____, then somebody's _____ thinking.

Having unbelieving children and teenagers in the mix creates the need not for _____ but for _____.

One of the greatest advantages of having environments with both unbelievers and core attenders is _____.

Disciplism is the union of ideas and strategies with _____.

Making a disciple ...

- involves _____ your life into the life of an unbelieving friend.
- means purposefully _____ our friends to influence them with the gospel.
- means that our children and our teenagers _____ with their friends as they grow in their faith.