• Live At Five

Being on live TV can be a frantic, stressful time. It can bring out the best in people, and it can bring out the worst. Some rise to the occasion and some melt under the lights. That's what the book of James is all about. Looking into the heart of people, what they say, how they act. Told from the perspective of a firsthand reporter - James, the half brother of Jesus - we get a great perspective on some of life's most important issues. The book of James is about how to live life, and how to live it practically. It's exciting, a lot like watching live TV. (5 sessions)

- Mirror Image

At least once a day we look into a mirror and see an image of ourselves. But have you ever stopped to think about the image you're looking at? A mirror image is actually a reverse picture. They have a way of getting people to look at their lives in a different way. From a different perspective...a mirror image. (5 sessions)

- Fork In The Road***

A fork in the road...it always begs the question: which way will you go? It requires a decision. Sometimes the decision is well-thought out. Other times we're forced to decide in a split second which direction to take. We've all had fork in the road moments, just like King David, a great man of God. Sometimes he chose the road to greatness, occasionally his choices took him down the road of heartbreak. Just like us...life had a way of leading us to a fork in the road. (5 sessions)

- Crossing***

Life is a journey. All along the way we reach points where we have to decide if we're going to step out in faith and let God take our lives to a different place, or if we're going to let fear and insecurity paralyze us and keep us from crossing over. Making a crossing always calls for uncommon courage, faith, and obedience. Joshua demonstrated this in winning the land God had promised to his people. The only way to get to the other side of life's challenges and changes is to step out in faith and cross over - just like Joshua and the Israelites. (5 sessions)
