

RESOLVING CONFLICT VOLUNTEER HANDOUT

We all have _____.

Most of us want to find a way _____ conflict.
Because conflict is never pleasant.

Why will we always have relational conflict?
Because we are _____ people.

When it comes to conflict, we need to be committed to facing the _____ ... in love.

When it comes to resolving conflict, truth needs to be in the _____.
Do not relinquish your pursuit of truth by ignoring the tension.

When it comes to resolving conflict, how committed are you to the pursuit of _____?

We as leaders continue this bombardment of conflict in our life because of _____.

Why should we pursue _____?
We want our students and children to understand _____ with God.

When we don't reconcile, we're demonstrating a conflicted example of what it means to relate to God because we have been given the same mandate that Jesus had with imperfect people.

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. (2 Corinthians 5:18–20 NIV)

We are _____ of reconcile.

The purpose of us trying to resolve conflict with other people is because that's exactly how God has loved us.
We need to love unconditionally.

We have to _____ loving people who are _____ from us.
