

Jerry Field

State Director of Church Planting

Jerry R. Field is the State Director of Church Planting for the Missouri Baptist Convention, Jefferson City.

Field previously served Missouri Baptists as the State Evangelism Director, Personal Evangelism Unit Director, and Church Planting Consultant.

A third generation church planter, Jerry accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at age nine and made public his call to ministry at age 16. He began his first church staff position in 1966 at age 19.

Prior to joining the MBC staff in 1996, Field has served 30 years in local churches as a staff member and senior pastor. His first full-time staff experience was at First Baptist Church, Cassville, Mo. He served churches in Texas, Colorado and Oklahoma before returning to Missouri from First Southern Baptist Church in Casper, WY in 1996.

Field received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, Texas, in 1969, a master of divinity in 1979 and a doctor of ministry degree in 1983, both from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas.

He and his wife, Sherry, have two children and four grandchildren.
