

Ed Moncada Collegiate Ministry International Specialist

Ed Moncada is Collegiate Ministry International Specialist for the Missouri Baptist Convention, Jefferson City. Originally from the Philippines, he is part of the Collegiate Ministry team under Church and Family Ministries Team. Ed's duties consist of resourcing and coordinating strategies to reach International Students studying in our college campus.. He continues to network with our local churches and campus ministries to bridge international student outreach. He is also strategizing with National Collegiate Ministries Network coordinating International Student Ministries with NAMB, IMB, Lifeway, and WMU. He is also a NAMB appointed career missionary. He also serves in the SBC National Committee for International Student Ministry for North America.

Prior to joining the MBC staff in 1998, Moncada served as Metro Campus Minister Coordinator for Metro St. Louis ('98-'02). He was Filipino Mission pastor for South County Baptist Church in St. Louis ('90-'97) and for the New Orleans Baptist Association in New Orleans, LA. ('86-'90). He still consults and works with language churches to reach the Ethnic population in America to help start new churches.

The Missouri native earned the Bachelor's of Science degree in Therapeutic Recreation from Southeast Missouri State University ('84) in Cape Girardeau, Mo. He earned the Master's of Divinity degree in Religious Education from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary ('88). Moncada and his wife, Angela, have two children, Katlyn and Brandon. He is an active deacon and member of South County Baptist Church in St. Louis, MO.

10710 Meath Drive, St. Louis, MO 63123
Phone: 314-842-3590
Email: dmoncada@mobaptist.org