

Source for FR 4.8

To: Student Loan Borrowers
From: Office of Financial Assistance
Re: Loan Exit Counseling Session

Important: The federal government requires that you complete a Stafford Loan Exit Counseling session. You can meet this obligation by going to the Mapping-Your-Future web site at <http://Mapping-Your-Future.org/exitcounseling/>

The Office of Financial Assistance has been notified that you are graduating in December, 2005. The average loan indebtedness of a Francis Marion University (FMU) student graduating in December 2005 is $24,939.95.

According to our records, you received student loan funds from the Federal Stafford Loan Program while attending FMU. General details concerning student loans are explained in the enclosed brochure. For specific loan information, contact your lender. To locate your lender go to <http://studentclearinghouse.org>.

Please read this information carefully and completely.

Good luck with your future endeavors.