SUNDAY CELEBRATIONS IN THE ABSENCE OF A PRIEST WORKSHOP

In 2007 the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops published a revised and updated edition of the Ritual for Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest. In the Archdiocese of Louisville this ritual is used when a priest is unavailable to celebrate Mass and parishioners cannot be notified of this change in advance. This workshop will assist, not only those designated by their pastors to lead this ritual, but will also prepare the other liturgical ministers for the required changes.

Topics to be covered include:

- Archdiocesan guidelines for use
- Selection of the best form for the parish
- Elements/options of the rite
- Preparation in advance and immediate
- Alert to changes for liturgical ministers
- Music selections
- Worship aids
- Leadership skills
- How to prepare the parish

Saturday, 22 January, 2011, 9:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Maloney Center
1200 South Shelby Street
Louisville, KY 40203

Cost $20.00 per person

A copy of the Ritual Book for Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest is available at the special discounted price of $55.00.

Registration can be made online at www.archlou.org/worship or by using the registration form at the end of this catalog.
